

Tending the Fire: Feminine Wisdom for Midnight Times

We can feel it.

Our earth is in crisis.
Divisions run deep through our communities,
local and global.

The fire at the heart of the world needs tending.
The feminine in us all knows what needs to be done.

Saturday, February 22, 2014
2:00-4:00 p.m.
In Other Words,
Portland's Feminist Community Center
14 NE Killingsworth Street

You are invited to join local author and activist Nancy Thurston for an afternoon of waking up to the feminine wisdom already within you.

Guided by excerpts from her provocative social change memoir, Big Topics at Midnight: A Texas Girl Wakes Up to Race, Class, Gender and Herself, Nancy will facilitate creative exercises to help you excavate the riches of your own story.

In these unsteady times, you're invited to find the solid ground within yourself.

Please join us.

For more information about this event, contact In Other Words, 503- 232-6003, or Nancy at nancymthurston@gmail.com

Illustrations by Khara Scott-Bey.
For more information about Nancy Thurston or Big Topics at Midnight see www.nancymthurston.com.